<sup>1</sup> N For Italian or foreign economic operators resident in Italy, the declaration must be signed by a legal representative or by an attorney of the legal representative, adding a digital signature. For foreign economic operators not resident in Italy, the declaration can be signed by the same subjects by affixing the handwritten signature and attaching a copy of a valid identity document of the signatory. In the event that the declaration is signed by an attorney of the legal representative, a copy conforming to the original of the power of attorney must be attached or only in the case in which the chamber of commerce certificate of the economic operator shows the express indication of the representative powers conferred with the power of attorney, the substitutive declaration made by the undersigning attorney/legal representative certifying the existence of the representative powers resulting from the title search.
